We encourage potential presenters to submit multiple abstracts on pertinent topics

Abstracts should include:

- Your name and credentials
- Title of abstract

- Brief description of your presentation: why it's of interest to lactation professionals (250 words or less)
- Where your topic fits on the IBLCE Detailed Content Outline

This is your chance to present your expertise or experiences to ~200 or more of your colleagues!

Our speaker compensation package offers honoraria, free conference registration, in addition to travel expenses for speakers presenting in person.

All applications are due by our deadline of September 15, 2023, and are subject to committee review.

Applicants will be notified of acceptance in late-September, 2023.
